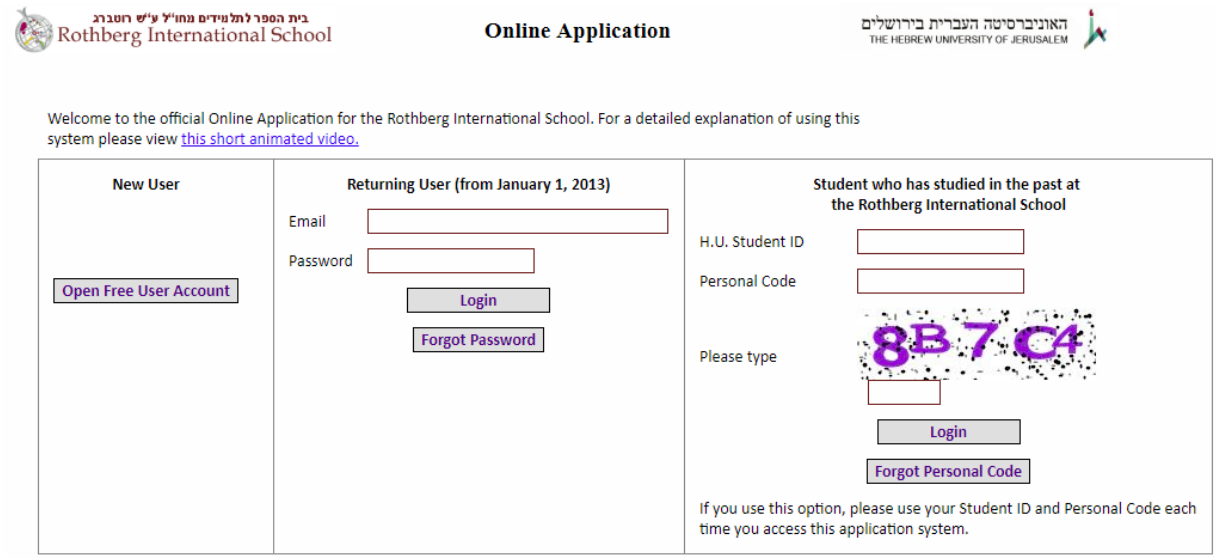
Israel and International Law Program 2019

How to Register

1. Go to https://overseas.huji.ac.il/academics/summer-and-short-term-programs/faculty-led/special-programs/university-manitoba-introduction-israeli-law-society-ancient-peoples-newcomers-start-nation/

2. Click the "Apply Now" button near the bottom of the webpage.

3. Open a User Account.



4. Pay the $80 USD registration fee.
   - Upload all required documentation by February 15, 2019.
   - Robson Hall students do not need to provide a transcript or reference letter as part of the required documentation.

If you encounter any problems using the application portal or have any questions about the application requirements, please contact Siba Awad at sibaa@savion.huji.ac.il.

5. Once you have registered, please complete the waiver form on the program webpage: http://law.robsonhall.com/current-students1/hebrew-university-summer-program-2/. Completed waiver forms must be emailed or handed in to:

   Larissa Feir | 303 Robson Hall
   Larissa.Feir@umanitoba.ca

Letter of Permission (University of Manitoba students)

In order to receive credit, students must apply for a "Letter of Permission" at the Registrar's Office one month prior to departing, and upon completing the program, submit an official transcript from Hebrew University.

For more information about the Letter of Permission: http://umanitoba.ca/student/records/leave_return/lop.html.

The credit hours will be applied to your following year of law school (e.g. if you are between year 1 and 2 in May 2019, the credit hours will be applied to year 2). For more information regarding credit hours, please contact the Associate Dean's office.

The Associate Dean's office has the right to withdraw you from the Israel and International Law Program should you not maintain a high standing. Any fees paid toward the program will not be refunded (e.g. registration fee, fee associated with the letter of permission, flight, accommodation or tuition, etc.).

Universities who have approved the transfer of credit

- York University
- Université de Montréal
- University of Ottawa
- University of Saskatchewan
- McGill University
- Thompson Rivers University
- University of Calgary

Housing

Student dormitories. No alternate arrangements permitted.
The Student Village dorms are available for the 2019 program. The older dorms are not available.

Passport

Canadian passports must be valid for at least six months beyond the date of the expected departure from the country. Please check the expiration of your passport and renew accordingly. Students with passports from other countries should check with their nearest consulate on any travel documents that might be required to travel to Israel.

Required reading

"Start-up Nation" by Dan Senor and Saul Singer.

Withdrawing from the Program

Should you need to withdraw from the program, an email communicating your intention to withdraw must be sent immediately to the program's administration team: Larissa Feir (Larissa.Feir@umanitoba.ca), Siba Awad (sibaa@savion.huji.ac.il), and Kari Zalik (kzalik@hebrewu.org).

Cost

Please note the currency; tuition, dorms, registration fee and deposit are paid in USD.

Airfare: $1500-$2000 CAD. Students book their own airfare.
Tuition (& Dorms): $2920 USD. (Tuition $2230 USD Dorms: $690 USD) Tuition includes health insurance.
Living costs (meals, local transportation): $1000-$1600 CAD.
Letter of permission: $70 CAD.
Required Reading: $20 CAD ("Start-up Nation" by Dan Senor and Saul Singer.)
Registration Fee: $80 USD.
Deposit: $250 USD.

Total Cost: Approximately $6,600 - $7,700 CAD

We aim to offer the students a subsidy to cover 70-80% of the tuition cost (note: this does not include the cost of the dorms).

Important Dates

November 1, 2018 – Registration opens

February 15, 2019 – Deadline to complete your application (including medical forms)

March 1, 2019 – Deposit deadline

March 1 - April 1, 2019 – Apply for a letter of permission through the Registrar's Office