About the Firm

Brodsky & Company is currently recognized as Manitoba and NorthWestern Ontario's premier boutique criminal law firm. Founded in 1999, our firm traces its roots back to the legendary Walsh Micay and Company, who represented leaders in the 1919 Winnipeg General Strike. Building on this strong tradition, we advocate for people from all walks of Canadian life in a progressive and liberal manner.

The firm is headed by G. Greg Brodsky, Q.C., who has revolutionized Canadian Law over the past 45 years with cases such as R. v. Lavallee, creating a battered wife defence, R. v. Starr, redefining reasonable doubt, and R. v. Chaulk, modernizing the not criminally responsible defence. Greg Brodsky also has litigated over 700 homicide cases in his career, a record in the English speaking world.

There are currently 8 lawyers and 2 articling student practicing at Brodsky & Company.

Brodsky & Co. offers our articling students an intensive, wide-ranging criminal law experience including Charter and human rights litigation. By serving individuals from all walks of Canadian society, we maintain a vibrant client base and create a dynamic working environment.
