

Summer Research Student

The University of Winnipeg is seeking a summer research student to work with Professor Spencer in the Criminal Justice Department. Professor Spencer is seeking a legal researcher assistant to work on a number of projects involving problem gambling and the criminal law. The successful candidate will gain experience performing legal research and writing.

The ideal candidate would:

- Be completed at least first year law school.
- Have a comprehensive understanding of contract law.
- Have a demonstrated understanding of criminal law.
- Have superior legal research skills.
- Have background in social sciences.
- Be highly motivated, organized and able to work independently.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Review case law and academic articles.
- Summarizing of legal materials.
- General copy-editing.
- Other responsibilities as assigned.

The position is scheduled to run from May 14th, 2018 – August 10th, 2018, start and end dates may be negotiable. The position is for full-time employment at 35 hours per week, the rate of pay is $16.14/hr.

Please apply via e-mail to d.spencer@uwinnipeg.ca, with a cover letter, resume and unofficial undergraduate and law school transcripts. Deadline for applicants is April 27th, 2018. The University of Winnipeg is committed to employment equity, welcomes diversity in the workplace, and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, members of racialized communities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, first preference must be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.