

KAWASKIMHON MOOT 2020

PARTIES

French translation to come soon.

Each party needs to be ready to discuss their organization's goals and proposed involvement in the creation of the Crown policy. Some may come to the table with very different concerns so it is very important to respect those differing viewpoints and ultimately come to a consensus to what could become an important step in reconciliation.

Always remember the words of Senator Sinclair when he was Justice Sinclair as he spoke to the Canadian Senate in 2010: "The road we travel is equal in importance to the destination we seek. There are no shortcuts. When it comes to Truth and Reconciliation we are forced to go the distance."

Please do not contact the organizations directly, you must rely on publicly available information to cultivate your position.
