This roundtable is jointly hosted by the Manitoba Bar Association’s Women Lawyers’ Forum and Robson Hall’s Feminist Legal Forum. The roundtable will focus on “Making Space” – for female-identifying members of the legal profession and for conversations that tend to not be given space related to the particular issues, questions, and challenges that can be present for female-identifying law students as they transition into practice. There will be four facilitators at the roundtable, who will each participate in discussions with the students in attendance. The facilitators range from 1-3 year, 3-5 year, and 5-10 year calls, and have difference practice experience, including practicing in-house, for public agencies, and in both small and large private firms.

The Women Lawyers' Section holds roundtable discussion sessions on topics of interest to women lawyers, allowing attendees to share their knowledge and experiences and to learn from one another in a private, confidential setting. The sessions are educational with a discussion-style format typically led by moderators who lead us through the focus subject.
